IN THE COURT OF THE MUNSIFF OF BANGALORE.

NOTICE.

O. S. No. 147 OF 1892.

1. Karapana Pille.
2. Govinda Reddi.

Vs.

1. Apparow Mudaliar and 8 others.

Notice is hereby given that Karapana Pille and Govinda Reddi, pensioned Lascars have filed a suit in the Munsiff's Court at Bangalore on behalf of all the Lascars of the Ordnance Department, for a declaration that they are the owners and managers of the Dharmaraja Temple in the Lascar Lines in Bangalore and that as such they are entitled to obtain licenses in their names for the performance of the yearly and other festivals thereof as usual as the defendants, some of the Mudaliars residing in the said Lascar Lines denied the said rights of the Lascars.

The Lascars of the Ordnance Department, both in Madras and in Bangalore, may express their approval or disapproval of the said suit and join as plaintiffs or defendants as they may choose in the said suit.

Given under my hand and seal of this court this 30th day of March 1892.
